

JOB TITLE – OPERATING DEPARTMENT PRACTITIONER

Our multi award-winning, day case plastic surgery hospital is looking for a registered ODP to join our friendly and highly regarded ODP team, providing exceptional patient-centered care and outstanding surgical outcomes. With the ability to multi-task, you will be dedicated, organised and efficient; able to deliver an outstanding patient experience using your clinical skills.

This is a unique opportunity to join our thriving, multi-specialist plastic and aesthetics hospital; the Cadogan Clinic, in the heart of Chelsea. Grow your career working with our hand-picked “best in class” plastic surgeons and our committed team of professionals.

Co-founded by our world-renowned plastic surgeon Mr Bryan Mayou, (best known for introducing liposuction into the UK) and his wife Dr Susan Mayou who is our leading consultant dermatologist (as featured in the Tatler Beauty and Cosmetic Surgery Guide 2022), we continue to pioneer the latest techniques in cosmetic healthcare, treating over 20,000 patients each year. Join us in our vision: changing patients’ lives and providing high quality care and excellent treatment outcomes.

If you would like to be considered for this unique opportunity, please send your updated CV and a stand-out cover letter to people@cadoganclinic.com.

PURPOSE AND VISION

As a family-owned clinic we are committed to our people and have a strong, supportive, knowledgeable team who reflect our values of patient care and professionalism and we look for passionate individuals who share our ethos, vision and purpose.

ROLE SUMMARY:

No two days are the same in our busy, 3 theatre, plastic surgery hospital and our award-winning theatre team are central to providing a first-class patient experience; working alongside our pioneering, world class consultants to deliver exceptional results.

The successful applicant will be responsible for performing the tasks of a registered ODP, working flexibly across three main clinical areas, using your specialisms to undertake a variety of tasks across anaesthetics, surgery and recovery to perform cosmetic and podiatry surgery such as (but not limited to) Rhinoplasty, breast augmentation, face lift, labiaplasty, blepharoplasty, liposuction and fat transfer.

Working with our experienced ODP team and within our wider theatre team, you will be passionate about patient care, working co-operatively with others to support continuous improvements and ever safer surgery standards whilst being developed and nurtured by those around you to progress and develop your skills.

This is an extremely rewarding role for individuals who have experienced a day-case setting, who enjoy learning, and who can work flexibly and productively with others, playing a significant role in every patient’s life changing story.

IN ADDITION:

Location: The Cadogan Clinic, 120 Sloane Street London SW1X 9BW (close to Sloane Square, South Kensington, Knightsbridge, and Victoria stations)

Salary: £36,000 to £38,000 per annum (full time annual salary; depending on experience and skills).

Additional pay: Overtime pay rewards (as per the current clinic policy)
